Dan P. Smythe left this morning for Portland, where he will visit for a few days.
Joseph A. Owenhouse left this morning for Goldendale, Wash. to be absent a week.
Clarence Ross, of La Grande, is a guest of Hotel Bickers for a few days while in the city.
J. M. Hemphill, a well known farmer of the Pilot Rock district, is in the city on business today.
Rev. W. S. Holt, field missionary of the Presbyterian church, for Oregon, is in the city today.
Agent E. C. Smith, of the O. R. & N., returned this morning from a business visit to Portland.
Mrs. E. A. Vaughan has returned from La Grande, where she visited her sister, Mrs. A. A. Roberts.
H. J. Taylor left last night for Portland, where he has been summoned to serve on the federal grand jury.
Alpha assembly No. 9, United Artisans, will elect officers this evening. The business session will be followed by a banquet.
W. J. Lutes, of Holdman, was in the city last evening and reports the crops in that section in first-class condition since the rain.
Mrs. E. C. Skiles accompanied Mr. Skiles to Baker City this morning on his regular business trip to that city and Eastern Oregon.

General Superintendent O'Brien and Superintendent Buckley, of the O. R. & N. company, were in Pendleton last night on their way back to Portland after a trip to Huntington.

P. A. Worthington, member of the Western Normal board of regents, left for his home in Portland last night, after visiting the school with the other members of the board yesterday.

Rev. M. V. Howard and H. S. Shankle returned last night from the South Methodist quarterly conference at the Thompson school house on Butter creek. They report a highly successful and pleasant meeting.

William Blakeley went to Eastland this morning to attend to business on his extensive farm at that place. The recent rains have been of great benefit to the crops in that portion of the county and the prospect is now highly encouraging.

Ed Kiddle, the well known miller and stock buyer of Grand Ronde valley, passed through this morning to Portland with a carload of hogs. He has one hog which weighs 960 pounds and which he hopes to increase in size to 1100, for exhibition at the Lewis and Clark fair.

ADAMS CITY ELECTION.

Waterworks Proposition Carries Unanimously.

Adams, Dec. 12.—(Special).—The amendment to the city charter broadening the credit of the city for the direct purpose of enabling it to issue $2000 in bonds for the completion of the water works, carried here yesterday by a vote of 69. There were no votes against the proposition, the vote being practically unanimous. Under the old charter the city could only assume a debt of $500 for the purpose named, which was entirely inadequate.

New City Officers.

For mayor, there was no division, and T. A. Lleuallen received 65 votes. For city treasurer J. A. Cherry received 41 votes and John Otterstead, 21 votes. For recorder, Mr. A. Ferguson received 42 votes and Mr. Todd 24 votes. For councilmen, William Baker received 29 votes, J. O. Hale 69 votes, J. T. Lleuallen 52 votes, M. C. McIntyre 26 votes and T. C. Reed 43 votes.

For Money Savers.

The closing out sale of chinaware, glassware, crockery, etc., at C. Rohrman's is attracting a great deal of attention, and many people are taking advantage of the opportunity to save money. At this sale goods are marked way down, as Mr. Rohrman is desirous of closing out the stock as early as possible. The advertisement in this issue gives some new prices. Read it.

Lane Won the Case.

T. F. Lane won his case in the justice court yesterday, against Elmer Spike for the possession of a cow and two calves.

Ladies' and Misses' suits now being sold at cost and all alterations free at Teutsch's Department Store.

CLOTHING AT HALF PRICE.

Sullivan and Bond Forced to Raise Money to Pay Bills.

Sullivan & Bond, the clothiers, are in a predicament from which they are using every effort to extricate themselves. They bought heavily of clothing and the bills become due January 1, so in order to raise the money to meet their obligations, they have decided to sacrifice their stock and have cut the price of every suit and overcoat in the store one-half. That is, all suits and overcoats are offered at one-half price.

The public is invited to call and investigate. Everything will be found exactly as advertised. See the large advertisement in this issue, for particulars.

O. R. & N. Officials Here.

General Superintendent J. P. O'Brien and Assistant Superintendent M. J. Buckley, of the O. R. & N., were in the city last night looking over the business of the system in Eastern Oregon. Mr. O'Brien went to Wallace, Idaho, and Mr. Buckley to La Grande this morning. All the branch lines of the O. R. & N. system are just as busy as the main line and there is no prospect of a cessation of the heavy traffic. By the time the present rush is over, the Lewis and Clark fair traffic will begin.

Notice.

On account of the great volume of business done today by us, the stock is in a very bad shape, and in order to have it piled and sized we will not open our store until 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SULLIVAN & BOND.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR HORSES

Wanted—One hundred head of unbroken horses. I am located for the winter at the Dutch Henry feed yard, corner of Alta and Lillith streets, where I conduct a first-class training and sale stable. If you want to buy a horse I will take your order and select the best horse for you, or if you have a horse to sell I am well acquainted with the best buyers. I am well equipped to break and handle any horse from the finest blooded stock to the wildest and most desperate broncho. There is no horse but can be broke and be made to drive or work nicely if he be handled correctly. I have broke one hundred and twenty-three head in Pendleton, some of which had become desperadoes. I guarantee satisfaction in every case.
